Sampath B. Abayakoon, J.

This is an application by the petitioner seeking bail for her daughter namely, Gonapinuwala Thanthige Buddhima Sewwandi Kumari de Silva (hereinafter referred to as the 1st accused) who is now the 1st accused in the High Court of Negombo Case No 65/22.

The 1st accused along with two others have been arrested by the officers of the Police Narcotic Bureau (PNB) on 23-06-2019 while allegedly engaging in packeting a substance suspected to be Heroin. When the substance was weighed at the Police Narcotic Bureau (PNB) it has been found that the substance had a gross weight of 51 grams and 180 milligrams.

According to the B-report No-1475/2019 filed before the Magistrate of Welisara by the Officer-in-Charge of the PNB in that regard, this is an offence punishable in terms section 54A (b) and (d) of the Poisons, Opium and Dangerous Drugs Ordinance as amended. It has been reported that at the time of the arrest a sum of Rs. 15000/- had also been recovered from the house where the suspects were arrested.

The 1st accused has been in remand from the date of the arrest, and according to the Government Analyst Report dated 29-11-2019, the substance produced before the Government Analyst had been identified as a substance having 21.185 grams of Diacetylmorphine, namely, Heroin.

In the application for bail before this Court, the petitioner has claimed that the accused was not arrested in the manner as claimed by the police and had denied the charges against the 1st Accused. The petitioner had submitted several grounds she termed as exceptional grounds that warrants the intervention of this Court to grant bail for the 1st accused.

At the hearing of this bail application the learned Counsel for the petitioner contended among other ground urged that the fact of the 1st accused being in remand custody for over four years without her case being heard before the High Court should constitute sufficient exceptional grounds to grant bail for the 1st accused.

The learned State Counsel opposing the bail application submitted that the indictment in this regard was originally filed before the High Court of Gampaha and due to a jurisdictional issue that indictment had to be withdrawn. He submitted that the indictment has now been filed before the High Court of Negombo and the matter has now been fixed for the trial on 31-08-2023.

The previous section 83 of the Poisons, Opium and Dangerous Drugs Ordinance as amended by Act No. 13 of 1984 was repealed and replaced by a new section 83 by Poisons, Opium and Dangerous Drugs (Amendment) Act No. 41 of 2022 in the following manner.

83. (1) Subject to the provisions of sections 84, 85 and subsection (2) of this section, a person suspected or accused of an offence under sections 54A and 54B of this Ordinance, shall not be released on bail by the High Court except in exceptional circumstances.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 84 and 85, a person suspected or accused of an offence under subsection (1) of section 54A and section 54B-

(a) of which the pure quantity of the dangerous drug, trafficked, imported, exported, or possessed is ten grammes or above in terms of the report issued by the Government Analyst under section 77A; and

(b) which is punishable with death or life imprisonment, shall not be released on bail except by the Court of Appeal in exceptional circumstances.

(3) For the purposes of this section “dangerous drug” means Morphine, Cocaine, Heroin and Methamphetamine.

Although, section 83 that existed until the Amendment Act No. 41 of 2022 became effective had vested the power to grant bail for a person suspected or accused of an offence committed under section 54A or 54B of the Poisons, Opium and Dangerous Drugs Ordinance to the relevant High Court in exceptional circumstances, the amendment has provided for different jurisdictions to grant bail under mentioned circumstances.

Under the provisions of section 83 (2) of the Amendment Act No. 41 of 2022, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 84 and 85, if the pure quantity of the dangerous drug trafficked, imported, exported or possessed is 10 grams or above in terms of the Government Analyst Report, in such circumstances only the Court of Appeal which has the exclusive jurisdiction to grant bail in exceptional circumstances for a person accused or suspected of committing an offence in terms of section 54A or 54B of the Ordinance.

Section 84 and 85 are the provisions where it has been stipulated that a suspect or an accused shall not be detained in custody for a period exceeding 12 months from the date of arrest and up to another period of 12 months on an application made by the Attorney General to the High Court.

Since it has been established that the substance alleged to have been found in the possession of the accused was Heroin, and had a pure quantity of 21.185 grams, this is a matter which comes within the purview of this Court to consider bail for the suspect under exceptional circumstances.

What constitutes exceptional circumstances have not been defined in the Statute.

Our Superior Courts have considered various situations at various times as exceptional in deciding to grant bail for suspects in terms of the Poisons, Opium and Dangerous Drugs Ordinance.

In CA (PHC) APN No.16-12 decided on 14-06-2012, the Court of Appeal considered failing to file an indictment even one year after the receipt of the Government Analyst Report as relevant in granting bail for a suspect.

However, it needs to be noted that there are several other instances where the Court of Appeal did not consider the time period a suspect person has been incarcerated as relevant exceptional circumstances in order to grant bail.

In the case of CA (PHC) APN No. 9-2010 decided on 19-07-2010, the Court of Appeal considered the facts reported by the police in the B-report as relevant to consider whether there are exceptional circumstances to grant bail to a suspect. Similarly, there are judgements, which say that facts cannot be considered as exceptional circumstances.

The above varied decisions by our Superior Courts clearly establish the fact that whether a certain situation amounts to exceptional circumstances or not, has to be considered on a case-by-case basis, unique to each application before the Court.

It is the view of this Court that if the relevant B-report and other material placed before the Court by the relevant investigation authority, provides a sufficient basis to consider granting bail to a suspect, there exists no impediment for this Court to consider them as relevant in determining whether exceptional circumstances exist under a given situation.

In this matter, the 1st accused and two others have been arrested and produced before the Court on 23-06-2019, and although the indictment had been filed, the trial has not been commenced even after four years of the arrest.

Given the pace the proceedings have so far proceeded, it cannot be determined that the trial will come to a conclusion any time soon without any further delay.

It is my considered view that fact in itself constitute sufficient exceptional grounds to release the 1st accused on bail pending the conclusion of the trial against her.

It is ordered that the 1st accused shall be released on the following conditions of bail.

- (1) Cash bail Rs. 100.000/=
- (2) Two sureties with Rs. 500,000/= each surety bail. One of the sureties should be the petitioner. The other surety shall also be a close relative or a family member of the accused and that surety shall tender an affidavit indicating the relationship he or she is having to the accused before signing the bail bond.
- (3) The accused is ordered to report to the OIC of the Police Narcotics Bureau every last Sunday of the month between 9.00 a.m. and 12 noon until the conclusion of the case against her.
- (4) The accused is prevented from traveling overseas until the conclusion of the case. If she is possessed of a passport, she shall surrender the passport to the Registrar of the High Court of Negombo. If she has not obtained a passport, she shall file an affidavit in that regard before being released on bail.
- (5) The Registrar of the High Court of Negombo is directed to inform the Controller of Immigration and Emigration that a travel ban has been imposed on the accused until the conclusion of this case and is also ordered to provide the necessary details in that regard to the Controller.

The Registrar of the Court is directed to communicate this bail order to the High Court of Negombo and the OIC of Police Narcotics Bureau for necessary compliance.
